Camp Wolverine is an Owasippe Scout Reservation camp located on 4,800 acres of wilderness in Western Michigan.

Camp Wolverine offers great programs in Scoutcraft, handicraft, shooting sports, ecology, and conservation. The camp's aquatics program is conducted in the large swimming pool near the lodge. Lake Wolverine has a highly protected ecosystem that offers visitors peaceful serenity. Scouts can enjoy fishing and boating on this pristine lake.

Each meal can be delivered to your site hot and ready to serve or ready to cook in patrol fashion.

The camp has 25 sites with facilities that include hot water showers, wash stands, and flush toilets. The sites are conducive to camping using the patrol method.

Camp Blackhawk is located on the shores of Big Blue Lake and is rich in tradition, with roots dating back to the early days of Scouting. As one of the Owasippe Scout Reservation camps located in beautiful West Central Michigan, there are 4,800 acres to explore and enjoy.

Blackhawk offers great programs in Scoutcraft, ecology, conservation, nature, and aquatics, along with shooting sports, and handicraft. A wide variety of merit badges are offered in each program area.

Looking out from the Dining Hall, you can see the beautiful Big Blue Lake with its sandy swimming beach and its docks that create the perfect swimming hole. Swim instruction takes place here and boating activities can be found down the beach.

Blackhawk has 25 campsites on hills overlooking Big Blue Lake. The sites have washstands, hot water showers, and flush toilets.

Meals are prepared by our food service staff and served cafeteria-style in Camp Blackhawk's central dining hall. The Blackhawk staff entertains campers with exciting program during each meal.
